UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO INCE'S MOTION REQUESTING A PRETRIAL HEARING AND SETTING A TRIAL DATE

The United States, by and through the undersigned counsel, hereby responds to the Motion Requesting a Pretrial Hearing and Setting a Trial Date filed by Defendant Christopher Ince ("Ince") (Dkt. No. 607).

As counsel for the United States shared with Ince's counsel when the parties met and conferred this afternoon, the United States is not opposed to a trial date being set. The government requested, however, that counsel for Ince note in the motion the government's request for the Court to hold a status conference at which time scheduling for such a trial could be discussed, as counsel for the government collectively has trials scheduled for: March 11, which is expected to last three weeks; May 14, which is expected to last two weeks; and August 13, which is expected to last four weeks. Accordingly, the United States hereby requests the Court hold a status conference to discuss trial scheduling.

Respectfully submitted,

ALAMDAR S. HAMDANI
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
